

Miss Seest's K4 Class

May 17, 2019

It's hard to believe that next week is the last week of school for K4. Thank you for a wonderful year with your children. Mrs. Lease and I will greatly miss seeing your children come in every morning ready to learn. They have brought us joy and it has been a privilege to teach your children. Thank you for the wonderful love and support that all of you have shown. On Friday, please bring an extra bag to school. We will pack it with the children's things and get it ready to send home. Also, we will have special activities in the afternoon. I hope all of you will have a wonderful summer!!!

This week's Learning Points

- Daniel, Esther, and Jonah
- 1 Pet. 5:17
- Introduction to addition
- Reading sentences and marking vowels
- Learning Concepts: Family, house, manner, neighbors
- Adding the number 1 to number

Important Dates

- Friday, May 24 – Last Day for K4/K5 students

Notes and Reminders

- We will be sending a packet of papers and books that the children can work on over the summer.
- Please check our class website <http://k4.fourthbaptistchristianschool.org/> for class information and pictures. If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to email me at hseest@fourthbaptist.org or talk to me in person.

Miss Seest